Private events at
PACIFIC WINES

Shelves inspired by California's rolling hills, laden with a specially selected collection of some of America's finest wines, usher you into the sun-baked terracotta tiled tasting room. The perfect venue for your private event, where soft, fractal light streams through the sunshine patterned glass, and a specially made table takes centre stage, under our beautiful glass chandelier.

Pacific Wines is on a mission to bring the breadth and depth of American wine to you here in London. Our events focus on a curated selection of wines designed to transport you straight to the rolling hills of America's beautiful and unique wine country.

Our dedicated events space at the back of our shop is designed to make you and your party feel warmly invited into the American wine world. Our friendly and knowledgeable team will take you through a fun and informative tasting, beginning with a welcome glass to prepare your palate, followed by 5 specially selected tasting wines.
